Information on COVID-19

Regarding Adult and Juvenile Facilities:

- All DOC facilities will suspend visits beginning Thursday, March 14th through May 15, 2020,“in keeping with Governor Mill’s Stay Healthy at Home Order”. This includes visits from family, friends, other non-professional visitors and volunteers who lead programs and activities.
- This is in effect from March 14-May 15, 2020.
- We are actively working to reduce the cost of phone calls during this time period.

Regarding Adult and Juvenile Probation:

- Respectfully, clients, service providers and non-DOC staff except for cleaning contactors, should not be coming to the offices.
- Alternate reporting requirements for adult and juvenile probation clients are now in effect.
- All reporting will take place via phone, video chat, or email.
- This will remain in effect: March 14-May 15, 2020.
- Please contact your assigned Probation Officer / Juvenile Community Corrections for further reporting instructions.
